The following is the procedure for an informal hearing and resolution of property disputes prior to the March Board of Review:

Requests to meet with the assessor or otherwise authorized individual regarding property valuation questions or property disputes can be made via email, phone or in-person after the mailing of assessment notices (usually by the end of February) until the first Monday in March. Email, phone or in-person requests for property dispute meetings will be returned within 1 business day and informal meetings will be scheduled prior to the first Monday in March. Property disputes that cannot be resolved through the informal meeting will be scheduled for the March Board of Review as requested by the petitioner.
